Amends Constitution: Repeals current legislative redistricting process, creates new process conducted by appointed commission of retired judges
Result of "Yes" Vote: "Yes" vote repeals current process of legislative redistricting by legislature or Secretary of State; requires redistricting by appointed commission of retired judges or Supreme Court.

Result of "No" Vote: "No" vote retains current constitutional provision requiring legislative redistricting after each census by legislature or, if legislature fails to complete plan, by Secretary of State.

Summary: Amends Constitution. Oregon Constitution requires legislature to reapportion state's legislative districts based on population every ten years, following federal census. There are statutory criteria for redistricting. If legislature fails to enact a redistricting plan, Secretary of State redraws districts, after public hearing, testimony, evidence. Any elector may challenge the redistricting plan in the Oregon Supreme Court. Measure repeals current process; creates commission composed of retired circuit court judges, appointed by Chief Justice and free from legislative control, to conduct redistricting. Puts redistricting criteria into constitution, modified slightly. Commission prepares preliminary plan, followed by public comment and hearings throughout state. If commission's final plan not completed by September 1, Supreme Court must provide final plan by December 31. No review of court's redistricting plan. Other provisions.
